ABOUT ME

I'm a results-driven radio content producer with a strong background in radio content production, program planning, and execution of engaging content tailored to target audiences and station branding.

Experienced in scripting, directing voice talent, integrating musical scores and soundtracks, and managing production workflows from concept to broadcast. I'm committed to crafting immersive radio experiences that inform, inspire, and entertain.

WORK EXPERIENCE

KU RADIO 99.9 FM 2022- 2025

I produced content and hosted the drive show every Monday to Friday from 4pm to 7pm. Being an entertainment and music show, I have been able to persuade more listeners through my captivating on air storytelling, personality, charisma and natural sense of humor that I use to tell captivating stories on air and also for commercial advertisement.

ROLES I PLAYED ON THE SHOW:

1. Radio content production - Links, commercials and jingles
2. Music selection for the show and creation of playlists.
3. Research on the trending topics and coming up with the topics of discussion for each link .
4. Interviewing guests on the show.
5. Receiving phone-inns from the listeners and also social media engagement with the listeners and viewers.
6. On air promotions and product campaigns.
7. Writing commercial scripts and doing on-air advertisements
8. Recording voice overs for show jingles and for commercial advertisements .
9. Outdoor campaigns for the radio station for brand promotions and awareness.

My show won the "Best radio show" 2024/2025 at the KUSA awards, and the station won the best community radio station during my time at the KUSA awards and Tukuza awards in 2024/2025.
